

Area youth tour Great Plains Industrial Park

Great Plains Development Authority, October 11, 2017

Members of the Labette County Youth Leadership class recently toured Great Plains Industrial Park. The class, made up of students from Labette County High School and Parsons High School, talked about the vision necessary to change the park from a former military installation into a flourishing industrial park. Students also saw a presentation that touched on the history of the park, industrial park assets, environmental remediation, and prospects that have visited the site. Students and sponsors pictured in the locomotive shop are (from left) Jane Good, Cheryl Bowen, Kylie Jenkins, Caitrin Tierney, Alyssa Gharmalker, Miles Hogan, Cloey Jones, Clara Rucker, Chase Jarrett, Denton Carrico, Jack Leak, David Rohling, Mark Weatherford, and Great Plains CEO, Daniel Mann.